

The Mac Weekly

Eight Times All-American Pacemaker and Ten Times All-American

On The Inside

- 2—Letter From Japanese Student
- 3—"Mi Tierra" Ticket Sale
- 4-5—Picture Section
- 6—MIAC Story
- 7—CAC Meeting
- 8—Aeronautics Courses

Vol. XLVI

Macalester College, St. Paul 5, Minnesota, Friday, May 12, 1950

No. 21

MAC SUPPORTS UN—Two flags now fly above Mac's campus. The UN flag was raised to symbolize the interest of our college in the United Nations and world peace. Raising the flag are Dr. Charles J. Turck, Dagmar Ceba-Haberska and Steve Babcock.

Presstime Bulletins

All seniors planning on graduating at the end of the 1950 Summer Session are requested to fill out a "Declaration of Intention to Graduate" blank in the Registrar's office. Failure to do so may hamper one's graduation.

Grades for all seniors graduating in June and for those finishing their course work in the Fifth Year Program with an M. Ed. Degree must be handed in to the Registrar's office by 4:30 on Monday, May 22. Plans for turning in term papers and scheduling special examinations should be made with this date in mind.

The traveling exhibit of Youth On the Campus was put on display May 8 in Macalester's Weyerhauser Library. The pictures were received from the exhibit bureau of the Chicago Tribune and will be up until May 26.

Cap and Gown day convocation at 11:15 a.m. today (Friday) is required of all students, the dean's office announced. David B. White, ass't prof. of English and Philosophy, has been chosen by the seniors to speak at the ceremony.

The Cities Service Band of America will present an all Scottish program at 8:30 p.m., May 15, on KSTP. It will include a traditional Scottish bag-piper and the favorite songs of the late Sir Harry Lauder.

Prof. Ascher Christenson of the Political Science department at the University of Minnesota will be the convocation speaker Tuesday, May 16. He will speak on current international relations with Latin America.

Pres. Charles J. Turck has commissioned Dr. Edwin Kagin, who will retire in August, to write a biography of Dr. James Wallace, one of the outstanding founders of Macalester College. Dr. Wallace served as Macalester's President in the early 1900's.

Four New Staff Members Hired

President Charles J. Turck announces the appointment of four new staff members for next September.

Dr. W. Lawrence Thompson of Canton, N. Y., has been hired as associate professor of English literature. At present he is on the English staff of St. Lawrence University, Canton. He is a graduate of the University of Maine and has a Ph.D. degree from Stanford university.

Mrs. Margaret Enid Reynolds, Detroit, Mich., has been engaged as library assistant. Mrs. Reynolds has A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan.

Miss Patricia Knight of Iowa City, Ia., has been appointed instructor in physical education. She is a graduate of Iowa State Teachers College.

Miss Dorothy Jean Anderson, Cannon Falls, a Macalester honor graduate of June, 1949 and now doing graduate work at the University of Minnesota, has been hired as an instructor of mathematics.

Macalester's Annual Hotel Dinner Dance, A 'Dreamer's Holiday'

Loyal Farrell To Emcee Program Featuring Macalester Entertainers

By RALPH REEVE

Over 700 Macites are expected to take a romantic sojourn to "Dreamer's Holiday," Macalester's All-College dinner dance, held tomorrow night, May 13, at the Radisson hotel's grand ballroom in Minneapolis.

Today is the last day to purchase tickets. The Old Main ticket booth will be open from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. Price of the traditional dutch treat affair is $3.35 per person.

Honored guests include Dr. and Mrs. Turck, Dr. and Mrs. Caine, Dean and Mrs. Bryan, Dr. and Mrs. Birnberg, and Dean Doty.

The menu consists of chilled fruit cocktail, relishes, roast Minnesota turkey, dressing, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, whipped potatoes, peas, tossed salad with French dressing, assorted dinner rolls, frozen cherry cordial pie, and coffee.

The All-College dance is sponsored by the Community Council. Mrs. Birnberg is faculty advisor of the event while Skip Mackay and Caryl Knowles are co-chairmen.

Formal garb is in vogue for the women, while suits or tuxedos are optional for men.

To avoid confusion, guests attending are requested to remember the table number on their tickets after giving their tickets to the usher at the door.

Dinner is from 6:30 p.m. until 8:30; the program starts at 9 p.m.; and the remainder of the evening, from 10 p.m. until 1 p.m., is given over to dancing to the musical strains of Bruce Dybvig's orchestra, directed by Stan Lee.

Loyal Farrell will emcee the program which includes vocalizing by Maribeth Wickett, a song and dance number by Jim Olson and Mitzi Hunter, and piano selections by Art Johnson. A comedy routine will also be presented with Farrell in charge.

Pi Phi Epsilon Admits Another New Member

By special action of the faculty, James F. Armstrong, a junior, was admitted to Pi Phi Epsilon honorary society on May 2.

Through an oversight, James, who ranks second among his class, was omitted from the original Pi Phi Epsilon list. A St. Paulite, he is majoring in philosophy and minoring in religion and history.

Publication Notice

The Mac Weekly will publish its final edition of this semester Friday May 19.

Senior Departmental Exams Scheduled May 13

Senior Departmental Comprehensive Exams start at 8 a.m., May 13, in room 104 Old Main. Included are exams of the Speech and Drama, General Science, French, Geology, Journalism, and Music departments.

The exams are for the departmental records and are a part of the graduate requirements.

Further information may be obtained from Dr. Millard in the Personnel Office.