

250 Get Diplomas

Cottrell and Dahl Speak At Exercises

The class of 1956, comprising approximately 250 Macalester seniors, will receive B.A., B.S., and M.E.D. degrees Monday, June 4, at commencement exercises on Shaw field.

Dr. Donald Cottrell, dean of the college of education, Ohio State university, Columbus, Ohio, and president elect of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, will be Macalester's commencement speaker.

Dean J. H. Dupre will present the seniors to president Charles J. Turck, who in turn will present the seniors with their diplomas. Dr. R. J. Bradley, registrar, will assist.

Seniors will attend baccalaureate exercises at 4 p.m., Sunday, June 3, in the gymnasium. The speaker will be Dr. Orville Dahl, secretary of education, Evangelical Lutheran church, Minneapolis. The Macalester Bagpipe Band will lead an academic procession from the library to Shaw field on Monday. An academic procession will also precede the Baccalaureate exercises.

Dr. Bradley will award special prizes.

In the event of rain, commencement will be held in the gymnasium.

Larry Teien Named New WEEKLY Editor

Larry Teien, Macalester journalism major, has been named MAC WEEKLY editor for the first semester of the 1956-1957 college year.

Larry, a sophomore, has worked on the WEEKLY staff for two years and has been editorial editor for the past year.

He has named his staff members. They are Rich Melin, sports editor; Lloyd Peitzman, editorial editor; and Jean Roberts, news editor.

Music Recitals Scheduled Here May 20-29

The Macalester college department of music will present two students in senior recital. They are Nancy Headen Foss and Nancy Wold, organists who will perform Tuesday evening, May 29, at 8 p.m. in St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, 900 Summit Ave.

Other students presenting recitals between now and commencement are as follows:

Sunday, May 20, 8 p.m.—Cochran Lounge. Margaret Kilen, pianist and harpist.

Tuesday, May 22, 7:30 p.m.—Conservatory. Ramona Bole, pianist; Janice Brokl, pianist; Joanne Lund, pianist; Dorothy Sylling, pianist; Ann Timmerman, pianist; Joyce Hippe, soprano; Kaye Lehmkuhl, soprano; Janice Peterson, soprano; Kay Moberg, violinist.

Thursday, May 24, 7:30 p.m.—Conservatory. Lester Lee, pianist; Janice Peterson, pianist; Margaret Foss, soprano; Joann Pegorsch, contralto;

Jerry Fisher, brass; Bruce Hedblom, brass; Kenneth Linnum, brass; Bonnie Oxtun, brass; John Prehn, brass; Dave Waldron, brass.

Friday, May 25, 8 p.m.—Union. Audrey Monsen, pianist.

Sunday, May 27, 3:30 p.m.—Cochran Lounge. Joanne Juul, soprano; Marie Talberg, pianist.

Symbolical of seniors enjoying their last days on the campus are Nancy Wold and Dick Flatman, president of the senior class. Nancy is a music major and Dick is a history and international relations major. Nancy and Dick are engaged. The wedding will be in June.

Seniors Really Rate

One of the Wally hall traditions is that the Wally freshmen girls be attentive to the Wally seniors during the month of May. Relaxing and enjoying herself is Hope Zimmerman, senior, while Nancy Robertson, freshman, irons her graduation gown.

Pres. Turck Will Speak On National Radio

President Turck will appear on the "Town Meeting of the Air" broadcast, 6 to 7 p.m., CST, Sunday, May 27. The program will originate in Philadelphia and will be carried on the American Broadcasting Co. network.

The panel will discuss the church's role in an election year.

Included on the panel with Dr. Turck will be congressman Walter Judd, Minneapolis, Congressman Clifford R. Hope, Garden City, Kansas, and Reverend William Lee Miller, Presbyterian minister and writer.

The broadcast is in honor of the 250th anniversary of the founding of the first Presbytery in America, which is being celebrated by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, USA, Philadelphia.

Hofius On Red Cross Board

Marv Hofius, Mac junior, has been elected chairman of the Regional College Activities board of the American Red Cross.

The board consists of Red Cross representatives from each of the colleges in the St. Paul region.

Marv will act as coordinator of all Red Cross activities in the region such as bloodmobiles, disaster corps, and transportation for service projects like Tartan Troupers.

Senior Nurses Program, Reception Mon., May 21

The annual program honoring the graduating seniors from Abbott, St. Barnabas and Northwestern schools of nursing, will be held next Monday, May 21, at 8 p.m. in Cochran lounge. Dr. Turck will preside.

Richard Gauper will present an organ prelude.

Prof. Rosalie Burton, director of the nursing program, will welcome the group. Selections will be presented by the Kirk hall chorus.

Dr. Wallace P. Ritchie, well known St. Paul neurosurgeon and member of Macalester's board of trustees, will be the speaker of the evening.

A reception honoring the graduating seniors from the three schools of nursing will follow in U-107-109.

Attending the program will be the nursing faculty and administrators of Abbott, St. Barnabas and Northwestern.

Rummage Sale Nets Over $200

Macalester's "rummage sale," co-sponsored by the Community Council and the Union board, held last Saturday and Monday, netted over $200. The money will be used in payment for the new P.A. system in the Student union.

The committee wishes to thank everyone who took part in helping to make the sale a success. Special thanks should go to the faculty women who donated baked goods and other items to the sale.

Good Luck Seniors